PAUL FENTON-SMITH

ABOUT PAUL FENTON-SMITH

Clairvoyant, writer and regular media guest Paul Fenton-Smith is the author of eleven books. With simple language and entertaining examples, Paul takes a practical approach to the esoteric. Whether reading for clients, teaching or conveying his knowledge through books, Paul's realistic approach brings clear benefits to people's everyday lives. His engaging, anecdotal approach has won him a worldwide readership and invitations to share his entertaining insights on television, radio and in magazines and newspapers around Australia.

Paul began his studies with a course in palmistry in 1978. Moving from Adelaide to Sydney in 1980, he studied the tarot in 1984 and completed a Diploma in Clinical Hypnotherapy (1986) before leaving for London for further study. He also attended a counselling course in 1992 and completed a Grad. Dip. in Counselling in 2015.

Through practising and teaching the psychic sciences for more than 35 years, Paul encourages his clients and students to believe only what they can see or experience for themselves.
